BRAEHEAD

FOODS

Braehead Foods is one of Scotland's largest independent food wholesalers who have been supplying chefs across the UK and Europe with the finest quality ingredients for over 30 years.

A family business based in Ayrshire, we supply everything from quality chilled, ambient and frozen foods, to bespoke products 'Made for Chefs, by Chefs' in our Production Kitchen.

Processing Wild Game Birds Since 1989

Despite now being one of Scotland's largest independent food wholesalers with extensive ambient, chilled and frozen ranges as well as a Production Kitchen, Braehead Foods started out as small game processor in 1989.

Braehead Foods process game birds including grouse, mallard, partridge, pheasant, woodcock and hare, to meet customer requirements. Whether it's oven ready, long legged or breast meat, we can accommodate various finishing styles and packaging. Our locally employed team have extensive training to ensure consistency and high standards of processing throughout the season to maintain high standards of finished product.

Quality & Traceability

Braehead Foods collect game birds from estates throughout Scotland which are then processed in our AA Grade BRC Accredited Site where we work in accordance with FSA.

Provenance and traceability is of the utmost importance and that is why we ensure that all estates and gamekeepers we work with are legally certified, trained hunters, who abide to the seasons and protect the welfare of the animals and their natural habitat. Sourcing only from estates which meet our conditions of supply ensures that our intake of wild game is of the best quality and in line with all regulatory requirements.
